Answer Yes, if the share is registered in the Company's register of shareholders no later than Tuesday 3 April 2018 at 11.59 p.m. Registration by name can only take place in the bank at which you have your deposit. Please note that that it may take up to two banking days from the acquisition of the share and until it is registered in the shareholder register.
- Question My shares are not registered by name on the Registration Date (Tuesday 3 April 2018 at 11.59 p.m.), can I still attend the Annual General Meeting?
Answer No, unfortunately not. It is a prerequisite for participation in the Annual General Meeting that the shareholding is registered in the shareholder's name in the Company's register of shareholders.

- Question Where is my VP account number/password for the Shareholder Portal stated?
Answer For shareholders who have received invitation by regular mail, the VP account number and password are stated in the invitation (on top of the Registration Form). For Shareholders who have received invitation by e-mail the VP account number and password are stated in the email. If the shareholder has changed the password it will not appear in the invitation and the Company has no possibility for providing it. However, a new password can be obtained via the Shareholder Portal and will be sent to the shareholder by regular mail unless an email address has been stated earlier on. Danish shareholders also have the possibility of logging on to the Shareholder Portal with NemID.
- Question Who has received an invitation etc. to the Annual General Meeting?
Answer Only shareholders whose shares are registered by name and who have requested such will receive invitation by mail or email.
- Question How can I order an admission card?
Answer Shareholders whose shares are registered by name can order admission cards either via the Shareholder Portal by use of the VP account number and password or print the request form on the Company's webpage and send it to the company either by regular mail or by email. Admission cards can also be ordered by phone no. +45 3363 3672.
Please be aware of the increased processing time of the postal services.
- Question My shares are registered with my company as owner. How shall I order admission card?
Answer Shareholders whose shares are registered by name can order admission cards either via the Shareholder Portal by use of the VP account number and password or print the request form on the Company's webpage and send it to the company either by regular mail or by email. Admission cards can also be ordered by phone no. +45 3363 3672. The admission card shall be ordered in the name of the company but you should mention the name of the person that will be representing your company. The person representing your company is allowed to bring an attendant.
Please be aware of the increased processing time of the postal services.
- Question How can I give proxy to a third party to represent me at the Annual General Meeting?
Answer The shareholder must send a written proxy to the Company stating the person to represent him/her and possibly vote on his/her behalf (NB: Only A shares carry votes). This can be done via the Shareholder Portal or on the proxy form sent which can be found on the Company's webpage. Remember to state the email address whereto the admission card shall be sent.
- Question What is the difference between a Proxy with practical direction to the Board and a Postal Vote?
Answer Proxies can be revoked at any time. A postal vote CANNOT be revoked. Furthermore, a proxy for the Board of Directors will apply to all matters dealt with at the Annual General Meeting and will also be used in case of amendments to the items on the agenda and submission of new proposals put to vote.
- Question I have seen the notice convening the Annual General Meeting in the newspaper, why haven't I received an invitation?
Answer Probably because you have not requested such notice or you are holder of shares that are not registered in your name.
- Question I am on vacation can you send the admission card to my temporary address?
Answer Admission cards are generally sent to the email address stated in the share register. If you want to have it sent to another email address, please state this email address when ordering the admission card.

Question I have shares in both my company's name and my own name, how many persons can attend the Annual General Meeting?

Answer The company holding shares can attend by being represented by a person. This person can bring an attendant. Also the person holding his own shares can attend and bring an attendant.

Question The attendant I planned to bring with me to the Annual General Meeting is prevented from coming, can I bring someone else?

Answer Yes, as long as the Company is informed. For security reasons it is important that the correct name is registered with the Company.

Question What happens if I do not receive my admission card in due time?

Answer Admission cards will be sent by email and only to a limited extent with regular mail. However, due to the processing time of the postal services, physical admission cards for shareholders living outside Denmark can be picked up at Bella Center on the day of the Annual General Meeting. If you unfortunately should not receive your admission card in due time, we will be able to check that you have registered to attend the Annual General Meeting at the entrance and hand out your admission card there.

Question I have requested an admission card in due time: where is it?

Answer If the correct email address has been stated by registration, the admission card may have ended up in the spam filter of your email program. Therefore, please check your "spam" or "junk mail" folder. If you do not have an email address registered with us, the admission card can be picked up at the entrance of the Annual General Meeting.

Question How do I find Bella Center?
